

I would like to protest MOST VEHEMENTLY against the proposed lifting of the ban on cell phone use on aircraft. Cell phone chatter is one of the most disruptive elements of modern living, and is roundly disliked. It should be limited to areas where the user is ALONE and cannot be easily overheard.